

Fly Fishing Masers UK Introduction to the Italian Style of casting

R. Annan, Hoddom Caste – Sunday 13th July, 2014

Massimo is one of the most talented fly fishermen in Italy. Massimo Magliocco (who was a student of Roberto Pragliola), with his thirty years of experience has become a point of reference in fly casting in Italy and abroad. He collaborates with some of the most important Italian fishing magazines like Fly Fishing, Fly Line and Pescare. He has written a book called "Torrenti & Dry Fly" a book on dry fly fishing in small streams which comes with a tuition DVD. He has also published other videos like: "The Italian casting technique" a real visual manual on casting; "Specific casts for Fly Fishing"; and, "Casting, Flies and strategy. He has recently produced the English version of the DVD "La tecnica di Lancio italiana" – "The Italian Casting Technique" that is very successful among British fly fishermen. Today Massimo is a technical consultant and marketing spokesperson for a Spanish company and the German company RST for which he has designed various equipment.
